

A Great Reduction Sale of Furniture

Also, Carpets, Matting, Rugs, Etc.

Bedroom Suit, regular $18.00 value will go for.....	$15.00
Lawn Seats	1.25
Kitchen Safes	7.00
" "	8.00
Carpet	45¢
" "	40¢
Rugs	1.20
" "	1.00
Straw Matting	.25¢
" "	.22¢

Everything else will go in proportion. If you need anything in the Furniture line, now is the time to buy. These prices are for CASH ONLY. Sale begins Saturday, September 4, 1909, and continues 30 days. Remember the place—Taylor Mercantile Co's corner.

Yours for bargains,

JOHN H. BESS, * MARBLE HILL, MO.

LOCAL NEWS.

Fresh Fish—Every Friday at A P. Fricker's restaurant.

Clarence Shirkard, who has been attending a business college in St. Louis, came home Saturday.

G. W. McElroy moved from near this city to Gideons Tuesday of last week, where he has a good position.

Wagons—Muirhead and Lirostrath, Hexay Elfrank, Lutesville.

New subscribers: F. M. Lucy, Burg; I. J. Beck, Rockview; Miss Effie Kinder, Mapewood.

Swifts' Pure Raw Bone Meal and Fertilizer at Taylor Mercantile Company.

P. D. Estes is laying a new galvanized iron roof pat on his barn. Jesse Robertson of Lutesville is doing the work.

Moses Evans Ellis, H. M. Grind staff and Isaac and D. R. Sanderson of the vicinity of Patton were in Marble Hill Tuesday.

For Sale—A good No. 2 Remington Type-writer for only $15. Apply at this office.

Benevolent: J. H. Smith, Patton; J. H. Whitener, Marquand; W. P. McCann, Marble Hill; Roscoe Burford, Sulphur Spring.

Mrs. Ed. J. Turner of Texarkana, who spent most of the summer visiting relatives and friends here, departed for her home last Thursday.

Notice.

Parties breaking or trespassing on my place will be prosecuted.

J. H. McKinsey

Miss Oiga Fischer, who spent a month or six weeks visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Rosena Fischer, in this city, returned to St. Louis last Friday.

Mrs. H. M. Smith has just returned from the city and is prepared to furnish her friends and customers the latest and most fashionable millinery the market affords.

Rev. Jobe of Kansas preached interesting sermons at the Presbyterian church in this city Sunday morning and evening. He is to preach at Cornwall next Sunday.

The Farmer and Stockman, one of the best farm papers published and the MARBLE HILL PRESS, one year for only $1.40.

Mrs. J. E. Burkley and daughter, Miss Daisy, of Des Moines, Iowa, arrived here Wednesday of last week and visited relatives at Rosedale fruit farm, 8 miles northeast of town, returning Tuesday.

Last week we had the regulation "equinoctial disturbance"—and then some—but we are now enjoying the ideal autumn. The Ozark hills are famous for. Almost makes one forget those July and August broilers.

Veterinary—Dr. F. M. Masters has located in Lutesville and is prepared to practice veterinary medicine, dentistry and surgery. Calls receive prompt attention.

The night of September 22, during the rain and electrical storm, an unoccupied building on R. L. Teeters's place, near Scopus was fired and burned to the ground. Mr. Teeters was in town the next day and said he could not account for the fire unless the building was struck by lightning.

Just received a car load of wagons. HENRY ELFANK, Lutesville, Mo.

A distinct shock of earthquake was felt here at 3:30 o'clock Monday morning.

Emerson Welch went to Poplar Bluff Sunday to see about a position on the railroad.

For Rent—Stone-story building, counters, shelves etc. W. D. ALLEN, Marble Hill, Mo.

Dr. R. C. Coleman came down from St. Louis Monday and is in his office here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Snider of this city visited relatives at Sedgewickville Saturday and Sunday.

Do you need a buggy, surrey or wagon? Come unto Henry Elfank, Lutesville.

Eng. W. P. McCann left today for a three weeks' visit with relatives at Louisiana and Hannibal, Mo.

The Hollinger County Abstract Company makes abstracts that stand the best anywhere.

Rev. J. H. Young of near town is attending the conference of the Congregational Methodist church at Sands, Mo., this week.

Don't forget to call on the Hollinger County Abstract Company whenever you want an abstract made. Office in grand jury room in courthouse.

HENRY KNOWLES, Patton, Mo.

Rev. J. R. Eddie

Rev. J. R. Eddie, pastor of the Mount Zion Methodist Church at South, at Creve Coeur, Mo., died Wednesday, September 22, 1909, after a lingering illness.

He was 76 years old and was well known throughout the state, as he had filled pulpits in many cities and towns. His church work covered a period of fifty years.

A long time service man.

Rev. Eddie was for five years presiding elder of the Poplar Bluff circuit, and he was in the St. Louis conference for forty years. He was pastor of churches in Fincastle, Potow, Cape Girardeau and his son, Mo.—Bismarck Gazette.

Notice

All persons interested are requested to meet at the Cook cemetery near Scopus on Saturday, October 16, 1909, for the purpose of cleaning off the rubbish.

COMMITTEE.

For Sale—A six-room residence, nicely located in Glen Allen. Good water in yard. For terms and further particulars, apply to

W. K. CHANDLER, Marble Hill.

THE PERRYS Offer

Kidnapped
for a Million

A Society-Melo Drama In Five Acts

Featuring

The Famous Little Perry Sisters

OPERA HOUSE

One Night Only

Saturday night, Oct. 2, '09

A car load of Weber Wagons—Best Wagons made—just received at J. H. Wicecarver's, Marble Hill.

Everett Bentley has been attending to his farming interests in Standard county the last week.

Corn for Sale—I have a few loads of corn left, which I will deliver to Marble Hill or Lutesville. See me at once. G. B. SNIDER

Emma Jane, the little daughter of Judge and Mrs. F. M. Wells, was quite sick part of last and the first of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whitener of near Marquand were in Marble Hill last Friday and made this office an appreciated call.

Wanted—Full feathered fat Geese and Ducks, between the 1st and 9th of October.

GRINNELL & JEAN, Lutesville, Mo.

Will Mayfield College continues to prosper. The enrollment is larger, the facilities increased, and the outlook indicates the greatest year of its existence.

A. W. Stever, who represents the Rawleigh Mfg. Co. company, wants to inform the people that he has a full supply of medicine on hand and all goods guaranteed under the "Pure Food and Drug" laws.

Notice to Members of F. E. and C. U. of A.

The next County Union of Boys' and Girls' F. E. & C. U. of A. will be held at Sugar Grove, Locality, October 15 and 16.

Try and get out as good an attendance as possible as work of great importance is to be brought up at this meeting and which will close October 16 with a big picnic.

Locals that have not send up for the third quarter should do so at once so that the secretary can get his books fixed up for this meeting.

Yours truly,
W. E. YANCEY,
County Secretary

Strayed—A 2-year-old heifer, black with white head; a 3 year old cow and calf 8 months old, red. Anyone seeing described stock, please put up a dead-out and I will pay them for their trouble.

HENRY KNOWLES, Patton, Mo.

Rev. J. R. Eddie

Rev. J. R. Eddie, pastor of the Mount Zion Methodist Church at South, at Creve Coeur, Mo., died Wednesday, September 22, 1909, after a lingering illness.

He was 76 years old and was well known throughout the state, as he had filled pulpits in many cities and towns. His church work covered a period of fifty years.

A long time service man.

Rev. Eddie was for five years presiding elder of the Poplar Bluff circuit, and he was in the St. Louis conference for forty years. He was pastor of churches in Fincastle, Potow, Cape Girardeau and his son, Mo.—Bismarck Gazette.

Dental Notice

Dr. W. A. Reynolds will visit Marquand the first Monday and Tuesday of each month. White-water the second Monday and Tuesday. Altenville the second Wednesday and Thursday. Zelma the fourth Tuesday and Wednesday in each month, and will be in his office in Marble Hill every Friday and Saturday.

Farm for Sale

100 acres, five miles southeast of Glen Allen, with about 90 acres in cultivation and over 50 acres in Leesville creek bottom, timberland around it and rolling ridge back. Good roads, barn and other out buildings.

About 4 acres for service and pasture land. Good pasture and stock water in abundance. This farm belongs to the estate of the late James Peeler and must be sold in order to pay debts.

For further particulars, see W. K. Chandler, Marble Hill, Mo.

Farm for Sale

100 acres, five miles southeast of Glen Allen, with about 90 acres in cultivation and over 50 acres in Leesville creek bottom, timberland around it and rolling ridge back. Good roads, barn and other out buildings.

About 4 acres for service and pasture land. Good pasture and stock water in abundance. This farm belongs to the estate of the late James Peeler and must be sold in order to pay debts.

For further particulars, see W. K. Chandler, Marble Hill, Mo.

Salesmen Wanted

We need men salesmen to handle our high grade line of Nursery stock. We pay cash each week, pay expenses while canvassing, give exclusive territory, and furnish a complete canvassing outfit free. Experience in our line not necessary. Write today for particulars.

25c, 50¢ and $1.00

Ballard Snow Liniment

ST. LOUIS, MO.

Sold and Recommended by All Druggists

Just In!

—AT—

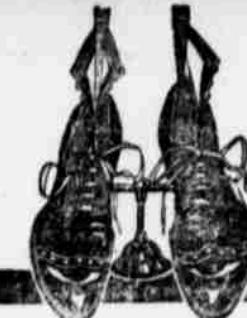

Taylor Mercantile

Co's Store

A fine line of Fall and Winter Millinery, Dress Goods Etc.

Call and see our Stock before buying.

Marble Hill, Mo.

ANY time you see a shoe with the Selz mark on it, you may know without any further question or argument that it's a good shoe. That name and mark is the sterling sign on shoes.

It means good leather throughout, good fit, good service; and a guarantee of your complete satisfaction.

You can't make any mistake in buying shoes with that mark on them.

....ON SALE AT....

DRUM'S STORE, Lutesville, Mo.

Dr. Sculps of Budgett was in this city last Sunday.

Moses National Banking Company of Kennett came up Wednesday and will visit relatives a few days.

Moses Mary Caudron and Esther Seiter of near Cupboard visited Mrs. John Neumiller Wednesday.

Mr. O. L. Spitzer of Budgett visited the home of his father-in-law, S. L. Spitzer, a couple of days the last of last week.

Notice

After being confined to my room ten days I am able to attend to my practice again. The report that I am going to make over is not true. I am here to stay. Persons knowing themselves to be invalids to me are requested to call and settle by November 1, 1909, at the earliest possible date. DR. R. D. BEVICK.

22 Sedgegrovle, Mo.

Mrs. Susan W. and daughter Miss Clara of near Bassville were pleasant callers at this office Wednesday day.

Will and Elmer Flory of Knob Springs, off here Wednesday and visited a day or two. They were on the way to St. Louis to entertain.

For Sale—a good 4 room dwelling, six block 150 feet square in the south end of Marble Hill—all inclosed, good stable and cistern. Rich soil well adapted to fruit, vegetables and pasture raising. It is now rented. Persons desirous of this property at a great sacrifice because they may need to another family and want to purchase a large house. For further information see W. K. Chandler, Marble Hill, Mo.

Confectioner Sam Smith has the foundation of Mrs. Mary Murrill's new residence about in and has much of the lumber on the ground for the frame.

For Sale—Five residence property in the suburbs of Marble Hill, good fine room building, good and convenient buildings, good distance and ordered, 4.60 acres of land, all timbered and fine state of cultivation. The place was formerly the home of Rev. B. L. Bowmire, once prominent in public school and college. For further information see W. K. Chandler, Marble Hill, Mo.

James Toots of Clinton was last week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Toots.

Opposite survivor B. R. Cole of Fetterkrogh was here this week looking after business.

The County Sunday School Association will meet at the M. E. Church in this city October 9 and 10.

Mrs. L. T. Young of this city and friend, Mrs. Clark of St. Louis, left Tuesday for a visit with friends at Cape Girardeau and Ozark.

Calamus Rain World, one of the best agricultural papers published, and The MARBLE HILL PRESS one year for $1.50.